Dear Louise:

Congratulations on your book, your marriage, your grant and your poems in the Kostelanetz collection! It's amazing how good things always seem to happen at once and usually just following a low period, which makes them all the more welcome. I'm simply delighted for you and wish you great happiness and success in all your ventures. I've passed on the news of your book to Mrs. Brigden, who was very pleased indeed and asked that I give you her congratulations and best wishes.

Regarding THE INLET, I have asked Mr. Paul Bonner, who handles our copyright matters, to have copyright of the poem assigned in your name. We, of course, will want to be credited in the book and hope that we may see a copy of it, too.

I'd like very much to see you and hear all the details. Hopefully, we can get together for lunch after Labor Day. I'll phone you.

Best,
